

Dr. Goutam Karmakar is a faculty in the Department of English, School of Humanities, University of Hyderabad, India. He is Alexander von Humboldt Postdoctoral Fellow at Multidisciplinary Environmental Studies in the Humanities, University of Cologne, Germany. In addition to these academic engagements, he is also an honorary research associate at the Faculty of Arts and Design, Durban University of Technology, South Africa. Karmakar's research interests include the Global South literary studies, postcolonial and decolonial studies, women and gender studies, and environmental studies. Karmakar is also a series editor for the Routledge book series South Asian Literature in Focus.